Karate members claim firsts

Six members of the Kingston Buyukan Karate Club returned with three firsts and three seconds in a karate tournament in St. Jerome, Que., over the weekend.

Stan Chisholm, Dan Wallace and Bobby Neocleous won their divisions.

Chisholm was first in the men's white belt Kata. Wallace won the men's white belt Shiai (fighting) class ahead of club-mate Ted Ewart. Neocleous won the men's green belt Shiai.

In women's white belt, Mari Cook finished second while in junior yellor belt Shiai, Scott Clay was second.
