

Karate members clean up

BALTIMORE, Md. / Staff

Peter Tsonos, Adam Geris, John Tsonos, Margaret Anderson and Antonia Tsonos of Kingston Buyukan Martial Arts Centre won one championship each at the sixth annual Ed Taylorson Memorial Shorinjiryu Kenyukai karate tournament on the weekend.

Peter Tsonos, competing in the peewee junior category, was first in shiai and second in kata in the white, yellow and orange belt division while Geris won the kata competition in the same division.

In intermediate junior, John Tsonos was first in kata and Antonia Tsonos won shiai and was third in kata. Both were competing in the white, yellow and orange belt division.

Anderson won shiai and was third in kata in the senior women's yellow belt division. Jim Carroll was third in shiai in the senior white, yellow and orange belt division.

Mike Pitre was second in shiai in the advanced juniors brown belt category.